164 Days in Acts

Among the aspects of this situation, so many of which were frequently mentioned during the Synod, 15 I would like to mention in a particular way the loss of Europe's Christian memory and heritage accompanied by a kind of practical agnosticism and religious indifference whereby many Europeans give the impression of living without spiritual roots and somewhat like heirs who have squandered a patrimony entrusted to them by history. Great read, and I'm glad you posted it.
